Happiness Is Making Pumpkin Pie In Kindergarten

Mrs. Morris' and Mrs. Coleman's kindergarten classes celebrated Thanksgiving when they dressed as Indians and Pilgrims and made and ate their own pumpkin pie. (Not from a can!)

Each child made his own costume, took part in measuring, stirring and carrying the pies to the oven. The children now have a better idea of how the first Thanksgiving was celebrated.

Belive It Or Not?

Rufus Cawthorne came by the TIMES-VIRGINIAN office Friday morning to show us two cucumbers he had with him. Mr. Cawthorne was given the cucumbers by Paul Ford of Appomattox back in August and he laid them in back of his Appomattox home in a shady spot and shortly after that time he left for his home in Pompano, Florida. When he returned to Appomattox a few days ago, much to his surprise the cucumbers were still laying in the shady spot and were as green and firm as when he put them out back. Mr. Cawthorne is taking them back to Florida with him.

APPINGHAM

On this Thanksgiving 1973;
let us give thanks . . .
"How many things to be thankful for are lovingly sent from heaven's store of life's good things
the sunlit sky,
The smile of a neighbor passing by,

The musical notes of
a songbird gay,
Shouts of children at their play,
The beautiful scenes that please us so
As the changing seasons come and go,
The love of friends who
Are so dear and true, Strength for the work that is ours to do
Oh, who can name all the blessings rare
Thatcome from the Heavenly Father's care."

- Cleo King

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrette on the arrival of their fine baby boy on Nov. 14!

Get well wishes go out to the following people who have been sick or are still on the sick list: Mrs. Essie Ragland, Mrs. Nellie Bryant, Mrs. Florence Amos, Mrs. Emma Gowin and Mrs. Ethel Bryant.

Mrs. Vinia Kress has moved; from her house on Route 3, to another on Route 4, Highway 26, in Appomattox. She invites all her friends to come by and visit her.

Sympathy is extended to the loved ones of Mr. Tom Watson and Mrs. Ada Stinson. "God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly what he has given. They live on earth, in thought and deed, as truly as in His Heaven."

Be extra careful with fire!

UDC Meeting

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Thursday night, November 15, at the County Library.

Mrs. Lucille Ferrell, Historian of the Chapter, presented a program on the Confederate Catechism. This is a booklet entitled "Catechism on the History of the Confederate States of America" and compiled in question and answer form. It was written in order to give the true facts of the Confederacy as well as to give information on the history of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas party and will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Anderson on December 20. Members are asked to bring lap robes for shut-ins at Nursing Homes in Appomattox County.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. J. W. Childers, Mrs. H. H. Caldwell, Mrs. Schuyler Marshall, Mrs. Lena C. Eversole, and Mrs. C. D. Lewis.

MRS. KNIGHT'S 4-H CLUB

Mrs. Knight's 4-H group met Friday, Nov. 9 at Pamplin School. We stood and said the pledges. Our recreation leaders led us in a game called the Hunter and the Turkey. Our program for November was on soil and we received a special project book called Your Surroundings.

We learned about rocks and soil by seeing different kinds of rocks and different types of soil. We looked at a chart with different soil particles on it. We saw how acids can break down rocks by bubbling and [illegible]. We also saw some [illegible] erosion and did some [illegible]ments with soil and [illegible]. After working in our [illegible] books a little bit, our P[illegible] Debbie Roach adjourned the meeting.

A Message for THANKSGIVING

Pause in the midst of the fun and the feasting . . . reflect for a moment or two . . . and count up the things you're glad about.

Probably they're the same things that inspired the Pilgrim Fathers: food, fellowship, and a sense of caring, sharing and purpose.
